THE FUNCTIONS OF CERAMICS IN SONG SOCIETY

GUEST LECTURER: ROSE KERR

Date: Tuesday 6 February 2007

Time: 7.00 p.m.

Venue: 82 Cairnhill Road Singapore

e-mail: art@artforum.com.sg

Tel: 65-6737-3448

Light refreshments will be served.

Guests of members welcome.

Rose Kerr will focus on the social, economic and religious functions of ceramics in Song society. She will discuss how Song wares were used:

- by scholars, bureaucrats, women and children
- for dining, drinking tea and alcohol
- in religious ceremonies and burial rites
- for trade

Pot Clinic: Members are invited to bring Song pieces from their collection for discussion.

Coming up: Look for more lectures and the AGM in 2007!
