6. 2021 President’s remarks: The newly elected President, John MIKSIC, expressed his gratitude to the outgoing Council for their efforts and contributions over the past year. SEACS has seen a growing number of overseas members and younger archaeologists and art historians joining us recently. We are looking forward to further membership growth. The new Council will continue to explore connections via electronic platforms by hosting lectures and discussions on ZOOM and enriching the contents of the SEACS website. We aim to establish a wider network with collectors and researchers in Singapore and beyond.

7. Adjournment: There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 4.35pm.
